Has been selected by the duly appointed Committee of Juries as winner of Dr. Dipti Kapoor Endowment Award 2023. Among his many contributions, the outstanding one is “4D Scaffolds: Adding a new dimension to tissue engineering” which effectively mimics the dynamic in-vivo conditions of cells apart from supporting 3D growth and proliferation, and the hybrid multilayered scaffold will have a significant impact on tissue engineering research. Needless to say that the other five contestants did contribute commendably but Dr. Gopinath’s contribution has an edge over the others’. While congratulating him for this wonderful feat and thanking him for honoring SAAE-I by presenting himself as a candidate, let’s welcome him to Aligarh on 20th Nov 2023 to receive the award and explain his contribution.

Sincerely

General Secretary, SAAE-I
